Friday, November 8 through Sunday, November 10, 2019

CONVENTION REGISTRATION - 2019 FOTC MEMBERS ONLY
 $250 per person, includes museum reception, banquet, exhibits, presentations, and more.

- Opening Reception at the Museum of International Folk Art.
- Major Exhibit of Fine Southwest Nativities at La Fonda.
- Live Demonstrations by local nativity makers.
- Live performance of a medieval Spanish nativity play.
- Markets selling southwest nativities and non-southwest nativities.
- Lectures by local experts.
- Come early or stay later at the same negotiated room rate at the historic La Fonda on the Plaza.

OPTIONAL AFTER-CONVENTION TOURS

Fine Nativity Collection Home Tour on Monday, November 11

$25 per person (includes bus transportation). Limited to 125 participants.

This is a rare opportunity to see collections of fine southwest nativities in four to five private Santa Fe homes.

Jemez Pueblo Feast Day on Tuesday, November 12

$50 per person (includes lunch and bus transportation). Limited to 125 participants.

This will include a feast day meal inside a pueblo home, a map of the location of nativity makers, a day-long Corn Dance (a communal prayer in front of the shrine on the plaza holding the village saint), and a large street market offering pottery, jewelry, costuming, beadwork, piñon nuts, and other pueblo edibles.

This is guaranteed to be a day you will always remember.
